Espionage Arraignments

LOS ANGELES — An aerospace engineer and an alleged Polish spy were arraigned on federal espionage charges accusing them of stealing U.S. defense secrets.

William Holden Bell, former project manager of the radar systems group at Hughes Aircraft in El Segundo, Calif., allegedly sold secret documents to Poland for $110,000, some of it in gold. Also arraigned was Marian Zacharski, president of the Polish American Machinery Corp., Bell's neighbor in Playa Del Rey.

Both men pleaded not guilty to the charges and were scheduled to stand trial Sept. 15. Bail for Zacharski again was denied.
